

2026-2027 MEMBERSHIP SUPPORT DRIVE

“Rails on Trails” INVITES YOU to financially sustain our local silent sports trails & community programs.

WHAT DO WE DO?

MAINTENANCE YEAR-ROUND for 22+ km of ski trails, 24 mi of mountain bike trails, 18 mi for fat biking and many miles of running trails between three different trail systems in Spooner:

- ★ CITY PARK (XC Ski, Snowshoe, Mountain & Fat Bike, Hiking & Paved)
- ★ BEAVERBROOK REC. AREA (XC Ski & Hiking)
- ★ WILDCAT (Mountain & Fat Bike & Hiking)

LEAD LOCAL XC SKI & MOUNTAIN BIKE CLUBS in coordination with Spooner Area Schools, introducing kids of all ages & skill levels to these lifelong sports.

COACH & DEVELOP MIDDLE/HIGH SCHOOL XC SKI & MOUNTAIN BIKE ATHLETES at conference and state events; and support Spooner Schools Cross-Country running teams. Many of these athletes have become competitive at the regional and national level, putting Spooner on the map alongside larger city and metropolitan clubs.

OFFER COMMUNITY ENRICHMENT opportunities for adults & families.

HOW DO WE DO IT?

Through countless hours of work by DEDICATED VOLUNTEERS—including many parents and retirees! BUT WE NEED YOU to help financially support the unavoidable program costs, needed equipment, fuel, repairs and supplies.

WHY BECOME A MEMBER OF RAILS ON TRAILS?

- ★ TO SUPPORT the infrastructure that keeps our Spooner area trails free for use (including trail building and maintenance, grooming and equipment purchase/maintenance)
- ★ TO PROMOTE the value of an active lifestyle across all ages in all seasons
- ★ TO ASSIST with providing & upgrading equipment for youth (at reasonable rental rates for parents) to use during club programs & team seasons.
- ★ TO SPONSOR scholarships for youth & families in need
- ★ TO PROVIDE financially for coaches' training & certification
